Aloha — The Hello One

Season 1

Episode Number: 1

Season Episode: 1

Originally aired: Wednesday September 8, 2021
Writer: Kourtney Kang
Director: Jake Kasdan
Show Stars: Peyton Elizabeth Lee (Lahela 'Doogie' Kamealoha), Emma Meisel (Steph Denisco), Matthew Sato (Kai Kamealoha), Wes Tian (Brian Patrick Kamealoha), Jeffrey Bowyer-Chapman (Charles Zeller), Mapuana Makia (Noelani Nakayama), Kathleen Rose Perkins (Dr. Clara Hannon), Jason Scott Lee (Benny Kamealoha), Ronny Chieng (Dr. Lee)
Guest Stars: Barry Bostwick (Will), Alex Aiono (Walter), Lehi Makisi Falepapalangi (Loto), Clyde Yasuhara (Mr. Lim), Mele Apana (Auntie #1), Leeann Ahlo (Auntie #2), Marcos Rivera (Policeman #1), Eddie Lee Anderson (Policeman #2), Linda Castro (Amy), Iris Wilhelm-Norseth (Power Walker), Luis Pereira (On-looker)
Production Code: 1FSF01
Summary: Dr. Lahela "Doogie" Kamealoha is excited to experience some of life's firsts on her 16th birthday, but her responsibilities at the hospital and her parents get in the way of her plans.

After Lahela and her dad, Benny, are done with their morning ocean time, it's off to experience a sixteen year old rite of passage: the driver's license test.

Lahela is not wasting any time on her sixteenth birthday by immediately heading to the DMV to get that coveted piece of plastic. Yet, during her driving test, real-life tragedy strikes. Our already delightful Lahela isn't your run-of-the-mill sixteen year old. She's also a licensed M.D. who races off the driving test course to help a car crash victim regain blood flow in his leg to avoid an amputation.

Obviously, Lahela (nicknamed Doogie by fellow doctors at the hospital who grew up on the original NPH-led show) is a lot to take in. A teenager practicing medicine full-time is a marvelous thing to behold, leading to many an eloquent verbalized takedown of those who question her merits as a medical professional. She knows what she's doing and she's proud of her work.

Luckily, one patient is on her side one hundred percent. Lahela has become close with him, always stopping by to make sure he's doing well even with his heart failure issues. After Dr. Lee blindsides her with the possibility of a heart transplant, she goes to the Chief to argue that her treatment plan should be enacted. The Chief of Medicine, however, is her mom. Dr. Clara Hannon agrees with Dr. Lee's transplant proposition, throwing Dr. Kamealoha into a stressful fit of anger. She can never just keep her work life at the hospital, since her mom is the boss. The anger follows her back home.

It quickly heightens as Clara forbids an extension of Lahela's curfew to attend the school dance (If she graduated... how can she still attend the dance?) with her date Walter (who I found out was born two days after me in real life and is hotter and more successful than I'll ever be... fun!). You can feel the tension at the dinner table as the boss & mom dynamics meld into one. Clara is, of course, worried that their relationship will never be able to become normal again.

Lahela heads to the dance with Walter, but rushes to the hospital before their first kiss when she finds out her beloved patient has passed away. It's her first patient death and it hurts even worse knowing they were so close. Clara arrives to console Lahela the moment she hears the news, being able to be both a comforting fellow medical professional and loving mother all at once.

Clara is, once again, worried that Lahela won't be able to recover from the death, even though their own relationship has been mended. Yet, when she sees Lahela kiss Walter on the beach and begin to laugh again, she is confident in her daughter's abilities to remain a successful professional and a confident teen all at once. Doogie's got this.

Love Is a Mystery

Season 1
Episode Number: 2
Season Episode: 2

Originally aired: Wednesday September 15, 2021
Writer: Alison Bennett
Director: Erin O'Malley
Guest Stars: Alex Aiono (Walter), Amy Hill (Dr. Takushi), Toby Meuli (Caleb), Michael Hardy (Customer), Shawn Mokuahi Garnett (Musician), Regan Downie (EMT), Austin Michael (Beach Goer)
Production Code: 1FSF02
Summary: Lahela uses the scientific method to treat an athletic young man who's lost all feeling in his legs and determine Walter's true feelings following their first kiss.

Walter needs to check himself, because the snubbed greeting he gives to Lahela and Steph at the beginning of this episode is enough cause to report him to the authorities. After Lahela's kiss with him at the end of the pilot, you'd think their flirting and romance would be slowly blossoming. In fact, that's not true. Instead, he's heading to surf, giving Lahela the briefest of greetings and leaving her in his dust.

Of course, we have a licensed physician on our hands who has never had a true age-appropriate school experience. Thus, our M.D. is going to overthink the situation. A lot. Instead of talking to him outright, she decides to post a TikTok and wait for a comment. This was Steph's advice (Reader, this was awful advice) and ended up leaving Lahela with even more questions than before.

While her personal life is a bit maze-like, her professional one includes a doozy of a case. A patient comes in paralyzed from the neck down after seemingly no catalytic event. He describes just walking about when his body just stopped moving in the normal way. Lahela now has to deal with finding a cure for this patient's mysterious ailment, all while navigating her own life. Her mother suggests using the scientific method to figure out a diagnosis, but Lahela decides to utilize the power of science to deduce what Walter's deal is all of a sudden.

After a very official looking powerpoint presentation in the hospital's auditorium, Lahela has reason to believe Walter does like her, but needs more romance to keep things moving. Obviously, the next step is to plan an elaborate date night on the beach with life music. By obvious, I mean completely uncalled for and arguably frightening for Walter.

The date is a bust, with Walter high-fiving Lahela as she goes in for a kiss, leaving both parties even worse off than before. Isn't being a teen delightful? As Lahela begins to mope about her failed attempts, she runs into her brother making fun of tourists (my favorite motif thus far on this show) and has an epiphany. CUT TO: Lahela racing back and reading as much content as possible on an extremely rare disorder.

Our patient is, in fact, a tourist. His paralyzation actually stemmed from surfing lessons, leading to him having surfer's myelopathy. This incredibly rare condition (about 50 cases a year, mostly in Hawaii) stems from spinal hypertension whilst learning how to surf. Lahela does her magic after her brilliant diagnosis and our (apparently) ditzy patient is back on his feet in no time.

Thankfully, Lahela's relationship with Walter is on the mend as well, as a brief conversation between the two showcases their nerves.

License to Not Drive

Season 1

Episode Number: 3

Season Episode: 3

Originally aired: Wednesday September 22, 2021
Writer: Sasha Stroman
Director: Erin O'Malley
Show Stars: Peyton Elizabeth Lee (Lahela 'Doogie' Kamealoha), Emma Meisel (Steph Denisco), Matthew Sato (Kai Kamealoha), Wes Tian (Brian Patrick Kamealoha), Jeffrey Bowyer-Chapman (Charles Zeller), Mapuana Makia (Noelani Nakayama), Kathleen Rose Perkins (Dr. Clara Hannon), Jason Scott Lee (Benny Kamealoha), Ronny Chieng (Dr. Lee)
Guest Stars: David S. Jung (Rip Tide), Wes Zane (Mr. Kahala), Erin Wong (Parent #1), Therese Olival (Parent #2), Ailee Juarez (Mele), Nakoa De-coite (Lifeguard), Nick Masciangelo (Bongos Guy), Iris Wilhelm-Norseth (Older Lady)
Production Code: 1FSF03
Summary: Lahela takes the family car without permission after getting her driver's license and taking the advice of a local celebrity weatherman she's treating.

Let. Lahela. Drive! No, this isn't a new bumper sticker campaign sweeping the nation. This is what our beloved teen MD is thinking the entirety of the episode. She is doing complicated surgeries. She's holding patients' hearts in her hands. She's literally saving people's lives on the beach. Yet, she can't take the family car to Starbies for a refresher? Mom, this is so unfair!

The bitterness directed at her family only grows stronger throughout the episode. While she is getting decently applauded by the parentals for saving lives, going viral, and being an overall amazing doctor, her brothers are getting more kudos for smaller tasks. Kai is making cookie cake, Brian is joining a hula class, and in Lahela's mind, they are being complimented as if they found a cure for the common cold.

Lahela has just about hit her breaking point (especially after saving a beachgoer's life after a nasty fall while she was taking a stroll on the sand), when Kai manages to get their parents to agree to let him rework a beaten up Vespa. After her miraculously saves it from a trip to the junkyard, he's allowed to take it for a spin. Lahela still can't drive two minutes down the road to grab a Starbucks Refresher.

After awful advice from her patient, Lahela decides to steal her parents car and take it out without them knowing. The plan is simple: take the car, get the Starbs, return it home before they return. No one gets hurt and we're in the clear! That is, until she pops a tire on the car mid drive. Fantastic timing, Chevy Impala!

Kai comes to save Lahela and Steph, but instead of letting Lahela freak out, he explains how he is going to teach Lahela how to be an exceptional teenager. While she may excel in booksmarts, she has to learn some street smarts. They quickly change the tire on the car with the spare and race home before her parents arrive, no questions asked. It works, as their parents bat nary an eyelash. Fibbing wins!

Clara eventually confides in Lahela that she is worried to let her go drive alone as it seems like the final step of her baby becoming independent, but Lahela is a family person through and through, ensuring her mom that it will never happen.

Lahela & Stitch

Season 1

Episode Number: 4

Season Episode: 4

Originally aired:	Wednesday September 29, 2021
Writer:	Steve Joe
Director:	Jesse Bochco
Production Code:	1FSF04
Summary:	Lahela must perform an appendectomy on Walter just as she considers defining their relationship, while Clara decides to go part-time after missing another family milestone.

Expectations vs. reality is the overarching theme of this week's episode, with Lahela and Clara trying to cope with how they want to live their lives versus how they are perceived. For Lahela, her goal is to become official with Walter. She wants to be posted on his Insta grid. We must strive to be posted on main! Steph helps coordinate a double date (her love of Kai knows no bounds) for mini golf. However, from the moment the game begins, Walter seems off. He has intense pain in his side and his usual joyous presence is instead cowering. Lahela can tell that he has appendicitis and rushes to get him to the hospital.

Awkwardly, no other MD is available to conduct the surgery, so Lahela has to operate on her possible-boyfriend. I wouldn't wish that cringey experience on my own worst enemy. Out of operation, Walter is very cold. While Lahela tries to comfort and give him confidence in her abilities, he asks to be left alone. Lahela is confused... why is he being so off putting?

Steph believes that the crux of Walter's coldness is her being "too much." Lahela constantly has to one up others with her knowledge and Steph believes it's getting to Walter. She decides to take a step back and not always choose to announce the answer to everything. However, when tasked with going to an escape room with puzzle-illiterate friends, it's a pressure point for Lahela. She freaks out, completes the puzzle in 10 seconds, and storms out.

After some space between the two, they run into each other at the hospital. Lahela tells Walter that she can't change her smarts just for someone else, as it's an important part of herself. Walter agrees, saying he loves her smarts. He has been distant due to the bizarre scenario of someone he likes ripping him open to take out his appendix. That's mighty weird. The apologies flow and, lo and behold, they become official. Lahela has a boyfriend!
