Summary:	LAPD Detective Gloria Sheppard and her partner Michelle investigate what looks to be a mugging gone wrong. But when Gloria uncovers evidence that links the victim to a psychic, it appears that it may have been a targeted murder. At home, Gloria's life as a divorced mom, raising two boys with the help of her younger brother Davey, has its own challenges especially when her youngest son wants an elaborate homemade costume for his school play.

The scene opens with a woman getting her kids, Nick and Leo, off to school. Her name is Detective Gloria Sheppard and her brother, Davey, runs down in a towel and says that he is almost ready to go. Nick is making sure that his hair is just right when there is a knock on the door. It is Gloria's neighbor, Katie Silvers. She says that she met her brother a while ago when he was living with his wife. Katie asks if Gloria can help her out and says that there have been gnome thefts and other lawn ornaments stolen from yards. Gloria tells that gnomes are out of her jurisdiction and says that if she finds a severed head, then give her a call. She gets the kids off to school with no problems and drives into work. She gets to a crime scene where Michelle, another homicide Detective, is there already with a dead body. She says that Van Stone is lead Detective and it is clear that Gloria doesn't like him. The victim is Morgan Campbell, a businessman with a lot of money. Michelle says that they are naming this a mugging gone bad. However, Gloria sees that Morgan's expensive watch is still there. Gloria finds a card to a psychic and says that it is creepy.

Van Stone walks up to Gloria and Michelle and tells them that he saw the watch and still says that it is a mugging. He says that he is going to tell the wife of Morgan, but Gloria offers to allow her and Michelle to do it. They arrive at the house and Gloria asks Michelle if her breath is alright and she tells that it is not fresh. She pops in a couple mints and knocks on the door. They talk to Barbara Campbell and she is not giving them the reaction that they were thinking that they were going to get. Sam, Morgan and Barbara's son, comes outside and asks what is going on. She tells him that she will talk to him in a little bit. Gloria tells Michelle that she took the news well and says that there was an astrology wheel and theorizes that Barbara was the one into psychics and not Morgan. Later at the station, Michelle says that they have been looking into Morgan's finances and that not everyone likes Morgan. Gloria says that Morgan pulled out $300,000 out of the bank and put it into a briefcase. She also sees that there are charges to psychics and tells that Barbara is not the only one into psychics.

They go to the psychics and they are not remembering anything and say that they can't see anything. Michelle says that it was just the way of life and Gloria says that she doesn't believe that it was a mugging. Michelle says that they have a witness. They get back to the station and run into Officer 'Romeo' and Michelle flirts with him. Gloria goes in the station and a man is trying to pick out the mugger. However, Gloria recognizes him as Curtis Moyers, a conman that put an innocent man to jail. Van Stone wants to know what her problem is when she draws a mustache with a pen on Morris. At the house, Davey has Nick and Leo dressed like Indians and they are throwing a knife. Gloria comes home and is surprised that they didn't wait for her. She sees an Espresso Machine and says that it was an impulse buy. Gloria brings up the fact that Davey is trying to stay clean and sober and immediately tries to apologize. He walks out of the room. At 3 in the morning, Gloria calls Michelle and she says that she has been thinking about the case. She has had several espressos and is wired. She says that Morgan was cheating and says that they need to bring in Barbara.

The next morning, Gloria apologizes to Davey by making a cup of coffee. She asks if he can get Nick and Leo off to school and he says that he will take care of it. Gloria gets into work and the Lieutenant tells Gloria that she doesn't get to doodle on people. He talks to her in his office and the Lieutenant says that his wife is threatening to go back to Thailand. Gloria tells him to talk to her in her native tongue. She tells the Lieutenant that she is bringing in Barbara, Morgan's mistress, Kathleen, and his girlfriend, Ashley. They come in and Michelle says that Gloria has a lot of guts to do this. Gloria says that the women know about the cheating and they are alright with it. She takes Barbara in the next room and she says that she knew about the affairs. She meets with Kathleen and Gloria realizes that the woman was in love with Morgan. When she talks to Ashley, she is more uncaring about the entire thing. Gloria finds out that Kathleen got a condominium.

Later that night, Katie comes over and Gloria says that she 'cracked the case' and gives her a new gnome and she thanks Gloria. Leo calls for Gloria and tells that the play is tomorrow and he feels that his costume is too plain for his part as a guard. He shows what he wanted and she tells that she is not going to be able to do it. Leo sees the burn on Gloria's hand and asks if it hurt. She tells that she was too busy pulling Davey from the fire to care. Leo says that Davey stays with them so that Gloria can save him. She tells that they live together because they are family. Michelle calls up Gloria and says that she got a tip about a murder of Curtis Moyers. The next day, Gloria shows that she made the outfit that she stayed up all night making for him. He says that he better where the costume the school provided instead because he is a new student there. She tells that it is alright and that they will save it for Halloween. She arrives on the crime scene and Officer 'Romeo' is there flirting with a civilian. 'Romeo' says that Moyers and a woman were arguing and Moyers fell out a window. They have to find out who hired Moyers to steal the money.

Michelle goes to a psychic who tells her that she can leave. Michelle arrests him and he tells that he convinced a woman to give up her house and then confesses that he told Morgan he was cursed and sent her to get the money blessed. Michelle asks who paid him to send Morgan to go to the church. Gloria goes to Sam and sees a handbag that matches Barbara, Morgan's mistress and girlfriend. Michelle calls her and says that Campbell was set up. They get to the station and Gloria says that they have a lead. The Lieutenant says that Barbara is confessing. Gloria goes inside and says that she knows that Barbara didn't do it. She sees that Barbara has had her bag the entire time. Gloria and Michelle go to Kathleen's condo and see that she has her bag as well. They bring in Ashley into the station and Sam as well. Ashley sees Sam and asks why he is there. They eventually get Sam to turn on Ashley and get him to tell them that she is in love with him as well as he is with her. Ashley tells that she didn't do anything, but Gloria comes in and says that Sam gave her up.

Gloria and Michelle meet with the Lieutenant and Michelle tells that Ashley could make any man do what she wants. Van Stone comes in and Gloria says that she was right and he was wrong, but didn't give her the right to interrupt. The Lieutenant says that Van is to go have lunch with the Mayor. The Lieutenant says 'broccoli' in Taj and Gloria tells that she will tell Michelle later. That night, Gloria goes in the backyard and finds all the lawn ornaments there. She asks Leo about them and he says that that he took them so that Gloria can protect them. She smiles and hugs him.

Summary:	Gloria and Michelle investigate the brutal murder of a controversial fashion titan and question whether this is an isolated incident. Meanwhile, Davey begins dating the babysitter, Nora, much to Gloria's dismay.

The scene opens with fashion designer, Ari Rose, talking to a model. He says that she has the job and puts his hand in her pocket. She is disgusted and walks away. Later, Ari walks outside and is accosted by someone. He tells them not to do it and Ari is shot and killed. Meanwhile, Gloria and Davey are playing at the house and Nick and Leo are helping. They are trying to destroy each other's towers by throwing things at them. Gloria tells Nick to go to Leo's bedroom to find Davey Leo's tower. Leo says that he is hurt and Gloria runs to his aid, but it is a joke and he is not really hurt. Davey comes around and knocks down their tower. Nora, the babysitter comes over for her paycheck. Gloria gets a call from work and she tells that it is her day off, but they tell her that it is important.

She gets to the scene of the crime and Michelle is there to fill her in. Michelle tells that it is Ari Rose, a famous fashion designer. Lt. Valdez comes up and tells that he doesn't like that he is working on Sunday and Gloria tells that it looks like a personal murder. Michelle tells that Lt. Valdez is always in a bad mood. Michelle says that she had her 'good mood' last night and this morning. Gloria admits that they live different lives. They talk to Ari's assistant, Karl, and he says that Ari was working hard and says that he was polite. He says that he had an interview with Marcy Heller and Gloria gets Karl to tell that Ari was a pig and that he tried to give Marcy the job through other methods, but she was not interested. Michelle says that Ari had an appointment with Jia. They asks if Ari had a girlfriend and Karl tells them that he was dating last year's model Laurel Martin, but they broke it off and it didn't go that well.

They go visit Laurel and she is working at a department store now. She says that Ari was sweet at first and she tells that she broke up with him and that is why she sued him because Ari groped her. She tells that Ari barred him with all modeling agencies. Lt. Valdez tells that the Ari murder story was leaked and it is a 'feeding frenzy'. Gloria wants to know why the killer shot Ari in the mouth. Van Stone tells Gloria that she has a visitor. Detective Jasper Cummings comes up to Gloria and tells that he wants to work with her on the Ari murder case and Gloria says that she has a partner already. He says that he has information and they tell him to tell it first. He reveals that there have been other murders with the same method. Gloria says that they may have a serial killer. Michelle brings the other Detectives up to speed and tells that they need to proceed as it is one case. She says that the three victims were shot with different guns. Gloria tries to call Davey to pick up the kids and to have them clean their rooms, but he is busy putting honey on the Nora's body as they 'get busy' on the kitchen floor.

Gloria and Michelle talk about Detective Cummings and Michelle tells that he doesn't like her, but he likes Gloria. However, Gloria asks how she can tell. Cummings comes over with coffee with the sugar put into Gloria's coffee and not Michelle's. She tells that is how she knows. Gloria says that she knows where Jia works because he is an acupuncture therapist. Cummings asks to come along and Gloria agrees. However, when they get there, they get no answers. However, Gloria comes from across the street and finds that the killer went to the café to spy on Ari and that is why she has receipts to go through. They get an address and find Jaime Sosa in the apartment with the gun that killed Ari. At the station, Lt. Valdez looks over Sosa's file and this would be his third strike. Sosa's lawyer comes in and it is Allen Brodsky, a high profile lawyer. He asks to talk to his client without cameras. He sits down with Sosa and he tells that he killed Ari just like Brodsky told him to. Brodsky gets nervous. Michelle and Gloria get into the office and Leo calls her. He tells that he played Halo with Nora and now they are making Hot Fudge Sundays now. He hangs up the phone before Gloria can talk to Davey. Brodsky walks out and tells that he is not representing Sosa anymore. Gloria and Michelle are confused.

Gloria sits down with Sosa and he tells that Allen Brodsky told him to kill Ari. She asks why he shot Ari in the mouth and he says that he got an email from Brodsky to meet him at a café. That is when the waiter walks up with an envelope that had a typed note that said that 'some people can't keep their mouths shut, shoot them in theirs.' At the same moment, another paid killer gets an envelope with a new target. He goes to her home and kills her. Gloria, Michelle and Cummings arrive on the scene with the team and Cummings says that they need to bring in Brodsky, but Gloria says that they need to wait still. Suddenly, Dr. Robert Madero drives up and Gloria tells him the bad news. They hold him back and Gloria apologizes. Later, they talk to him and he says that Lourdes, the woman shot, saw a woman getting mugged and that is how they met. Gloria and Michelle get to Lt. Valdez and tell him that the victims are connected because they all testified against Jack Markham, the guy who assaulted Beth Fowler. There is one person who testified left, her husband Thomas Fowler.

Cummings and Gloria go to the prison and meet Markham. Meanwhile, Michelle talks to Thomas and he says that he can't leave his wife and refuses protection. Gloria tries the nice approach and Markham apologizes and says that he is sorry for the assault. Cummings gets upset that Markham has 'found God' so close to parole. Markham gets up and leaves and Gloria gets upset with Cummings. He says that Jacob Fishman is the killer who killed Lourdes. The lawyer he asked for was Brodsky. At the station, Gloria tells that she will do the talking and Cummings agrees. She asks Lt. Valdez if they can use the conference room to talk to Brodsky. They get him comfortable and show him the murder board. He tells that he is not dumb and asks if he needs his lawyer. Gloria looks at the board and has a 'Beautiful Mind' moment and realized Fowler is the killer for the reasons that they didn't do something. She gets to Fowler and he is with his wife. He realizes that she knows and confesses to planting the email to the criminal's accounts and setting up Brodsky. Gloria says that Cummings can arrest him, but he says that it is their case. Cummings asks Gloria out to drinks and she says that she is not ready, but will hold on to his card.

Later at a bar, Brodsky comes up to Lt. Valdez and tells that he won. However, Lt. Valdez tells that he didn't lose because he has a serial killer behind bars. Brodsky says that he is not behind bars to which Valdez comments that he is not yet behind bars. Brodsky asks why Gloria doesn't like him and Valdez tells him that she doesn't like him and the way he makes a living. Gloria goes home to find Davey in the kitchen folding laundry and Gloria tells that she knows about him and Nora. He says that he can date and have a good time and Gloria says that he can sleep with anyone besides her smart, reliable babysitter. The episode ends with Cummings calling Gloria and asking her if she is thirsty. She says that she isn't and the episode ends.

During the course of their investigation, Gloria and Michelle discover a world where parents, students and professors will do anything for an Ivy league acceptance letter. When Gloria's son, Nick, gets a high score in a statewide exam and is thought to be gifted, Gloria must decide whether she wants to send her son into the high stress world of a private school.

The scene opens with Michelle and Gloria arriving on scene to a crime. Colleen Watkins, college professor at a prestigious school, is found murdered in her apartment. She was stabbed several times. Gloria gets a call from Nick telling her that he has it now and has been practicing. He attempts a Tarzan call, but fails. Gloria tells him that it's different and demonstrates it. The other officers look at her with smirks and she apologizes. Michelle laughs and says that someone who works at a prestigious school would live in a better place. Gloria asks about her schedule and they find that she has meetings with several names at different times, but that is all. Romeo comes up in a suit and says that he is on loan as a Detective and he tells that he is not too happy about it and Michelle teases him of his shiny shoes. They talk to the neighbors and one of them says that Colleen was nice and that her boyfriend was nice too. Gloria tells Romeo to track down the boyfriend as they go to the school.

They meet with Headmaster Alex O'Dell and he says that it is a terrible loss for the school and arranges meetings with students and colleagues. They all tell that Colleen was a good professor and some say that she was about the money. However, no one was close to her. Gloria gets word that Romeo picked up the boyfriend. At the station, Gloria talks to Timothy and asks about their dating. He says that they broke up and says that he was never good enough for Colleen. He says that he changed the delivery route because he didn't want to see her name on his route. Meanwhile, Michelle congrats Romeo on tracking down the boyfriend and Detective Buerge comes up and teases him. Lt. Valdez says that they got the email opened and there are steamy love letters inside from SmoothLoverX. Lt. Valdez reads the email and they hear that the word 'alas' is in it. Gloria recognizes that O'Dell is SmoothLoverX. They meet with him and tell that they know about the affair. He says that he had no intention of leaving his wife for her. Gloria says that it looks like he has motive, but he says that he was at school all night. However, no one is there to corroborate the story. He tells them to keep it private because the school has too much publicity.

They go to a flower shop owned by the Delgado Family, a family who had the son be rejected. Gloria gets a call from Nick's Principal and she tells that she will be there. She tells Michelle that she has to meet with Nick's school Principal. They talk to the Delgado's and they tell that their son Patrick was rejected from going to Dermot and that another child with lower grades got in because his parents bought the school a new Gymnasium. Patrick comes out and tells them that Colleen was innocent in all of it and tells them to back off. Gloria and Michelle leave and Gloria points out that Patrick was a little anxious and that something was going on. Michelle gets a call and tells that they are not going to find any DNA from the person that Colleen had sex with because he used a condom. Gloria calls Nick and asks why his Principal called. He says that he doesn't know and says that he has to go because they are doing a science project. He hangs up the phone and both him and Leo through bread with Peanut Butter and the other with jelly to see how long they will stay up there.

Lt. Valdez comes up to Gloria and asks where they are in the case and she tells that there is a lot of passion to the crime going on and everyone had motive to kill Colleen. She says that they are brining in O'Dell's wife in to see what they have. Romeo comes in and Lt. Valdez compliments his shoes and says that it is good that someone takes a little pride in their appearance. Romeo sees that Lt. Valdez has polished shoes as well. Gloria asks about the affair and Mrs. O'Dell says that they have their own affairs. Gloria asks if O'Dell would have relationships with his students. She says that he respects the job too much. Afterward, Michelle tells that Timothy went and stalked Colleen when she broke up with him and Romeo tells that Timothy delivered the package to her an hour before the murder. They meet with him again and he still claims that he didn't kill her, but admits that he had sex with her because she was sad. They ask about the package that he delivered and he says that he left it on the counter. They tell him that he is not going anywhere.

Gloria says that she needs to get to Nick's school. Detective Buerge tells that Lt. Valdez needs a file, Myra Maines. He finally tracks him down and Lt. Valdez tells that he was tricked. Valdez tells that every Rookie gets the file and tells him to order 20 pizzas in Buerge's name. However, he tells him that women throw themselves at him every day. He realizes that he has been beaten. Meanwhile, Gloria meets with the Principal and she tells that they are meeting with her because Nick received the highest scores on the test. She tells that they can't keep Nick at their school because he needs to be surrounded by peers of his intelligence. Later at home, Gloria is shocked that Nick is the genius. Michelle calls and tells that there was no package inside the house and Gloria says that they should focus on what was in the package to see who might have taken it. Gloria says that she is going to the prestigious school and talk to a student. Suddenly the Peanut Butter falls from the ceiling. Meanwhile, Michelle goes up to Romeo and he says that he is not having fun being Detective and Michelle takes it as he hates it, but Romeo tries to explain. However, Michelle tells that she should go back to Patrol.

Later, Gloria finds Nick and Davey playing on the computer and Gloria finds that they are playing Blackjack. He says that he is good. She tells that she was looking at private schools and they are going to need more than $50. Davey shouts for Nick and she tells him no. The next day, Gloria finds O'Dell talking to a student named Madison. Gloria asks how she knew about Colleen's undergrad school information and she says that Colleen opened up to her. She tells that Colleen was helping her focus. Gloria mentions that she feels that O'Dell and her have something and she says that O'Dell and Colleen were arguing about something. Lt. Valdez asks for an update and Gloria says that there are a lot of holes on it. Gloria asks about Valdez's kids and the fact that they go to Private School. He says that it is expensive, but worth it for the kids. Michelle comes in and tells that the box contained Atoral, an ADD medication. Gloria thinks that she was selling to the students. They realize that Patrick Delgado was fidgety. They talk to him and he says that he went to someone else for the drug because Colleen only gave a little to help them prior to exams. He says that Madison is the dealer. The detectives search Madison's locker and find the drug. They arrest Madison and she tells that her father is a lawyer. She puts her in the car and drives off to the station.

In the car, Madison gloats that she is a minor and that she can say what she wants in the car and have it be inadmissible in court. She tells that Colleen was dealing and that Madison started dealing because she had no rules. Madison says that Colleen didn't understand her place and says that she is not one of them, she worked for them. Madison confesses that she stabbed Colleen and that she meant to do it. She laughs and says that it is a shame that she can't use any of that. However, Gloria says that she can use all of it and says that there is no privacy in a patrol car and says that she tape recorded everything she said. Later at the bar, Michelle apologizes to Romeo for snapping at him and says that it was her that told that Romeo would be good at being Detective. She says that he will be a great Detective too. Detective Buerge comes in and gives Romeo brown shoes instead of his polished ones. At the house, Gloria tells Nick that they are going to take a test for a different school. He says that he is alright with it and the episode ends with Nick telling her how he got a great score on the test. He says that it is about strategy and says that the bubbles on the test line up like the side of a Christmas Tree. She tells that he is a genius and the episode ends.

Later, Detective Van Stone and Buerge meet in a meeting with Gloria and Michelle and tell that they have a list of jewelers and never found any family of them. Gloria asks why they would take the Honeymoon Suite and then invite people. Coroners report comes back and the victims died of suffocation and had a lot drugs in their system. Penelope tells that Rory and Jessica only stole things and that no one got hurt. Bernard tells that he has dreamt of ways to kill Rory and Jessica, but he didn't do it. Michelle tells Gloria that Bernard is crazy, but not a killer. Penelope, Gloria and Michelle watch the video of the party at the Hotel and they watch a scene that Penelope says that she didn't record. It is Rory and Jessica telling that they are going to run rather than go to jail. They find out that J.R. Daldrop was the one who posted Rory and Jessica's bail. She tells that he put up his house as collateral and has a lot to lose if Rory and Jessica were thinking of running. Valdez tells her and Gloria to go.

They go to Daldrop's house and find him in the garage. They tell that Rory and Jessica were found dead. He tells that he only paid the bail because Rory's mother, Arlene. Suddenly, Arlene comes out and Gloria and Michelle break the news to her. She tells that Rory was her only boy and that she tried to do everything for him. She says that J.R. volunteered the money to bail out Rory and Jessica. Arlene says that she and J.R. are living proof that romance is possible in life. Valdez calls and tells that Buerge and Stone dug up some information and found that Zachary Chung was at the party and was busted of dealing and Gloria wants to know if Chung killed Rory and Jessica, why he would stage the bodies the way he did. They get him to the station and he says that he didn't kill anyone and that he only gave them the stuff. Chung tells that J.R. told him to give Rory and Jessica a good time at the party and paid cash. Gloria leaves and talks to Michelle and tells that she doesn't think that Chung is the killer because of the staging of the bodies. Michelle has Frankie walk up to her and he asks if they are going to hook up again. She tells that it is supposed to be casual, but agrees to meet with him.

Later, Nick gets home and tells Davey that he ratted him out. Davey tells that Gloria was going to find out eventually. Davey tells that he used to pass notes around and that was better because there were no beeping to signal a note. He asks how that is different from what he was doing and Davey is silent. At the station, Gloria says that the posing took a woman's touch. Gloria thinks that whoever did this to Rory and Jessica was jealous of them. Valdez tells her to take Michelle and bring in J.R. However, when they get there, it is locked up. Gloria looks in the trash and sees that the address labels have different names. Gloria calls Valdez and tells that Arlene has a record, but can't really think that she would kill her son. Gloria goes home and tells Nick that he is losing his phone. She looks at the chat log and sees a lot of them are from Sam. She asks who Sam is and Leo says that Sam is a girl. Later that evening, Gloria is drinking Espresso and Davey comes in and tells that he is going off to bed and wanted to ask about Nick. Davey says that he was into girls in the 4th grade and that it is normal for Nick to be. She tells that she was hoping that it is not that stage yet. Meanwhile, Gloria makes breakfast for the kids and Leo asks why they have to have breakfast food for breakfast. Davey volunteers Gloria to make a Quesadilla for Leo and she reluctantly agrees. Katie comes over and she tells Gloria that the T-Shirts and hats that she donated for their school auction were nice. Davey comes up and asks if Katie wants a latte and tells that Gloria makes a good one. Back at the food trucks, one of the owners sees Rod's truck on fire. They open it up to find the inside completely engulfed in flames.

Gloria and Michelle arrive on scene and the coroner says that the victim was Roger Wilson and suffered from a blunt force to the head. Gloria says that someone hit him with a skillet and then set the fire. Det. Buerge says that two witnesses, a Surf Shop employee and Angus Ginner, an employee of a restaurant saw the fire. Bridgett comes up and starts to freak out. Later, Gloria talks to Angus and he tells that he doesn't care that the truck was on fire and that he doesn't like the fact that the food trucks are stealing his customers. Michelle talks to the Surf Shop employee and she asks what the man looked like leaving the truck before it caught fire, but he doesn't remember too well. Gloria talks more about the food trucks with Angus and he says that they don't have any overhead costs besides the meter. Buerge tells Gloria and Lt. Valdez that there was no smoke in Roger's lungs and that proves that it was murder.

Gloria talks to Bridgett and tells that it was murder. She asks her about her meaning behind what she said at the time of the murder about wondering why 'all' the trucks left. She tells that she didn't mean anything about it and that she was only saying that because no one stayed to help. She leaves and says that whoever did this to her father is going to have to pay. Gloria tells Michelle that she wishes she could do more for Bridgett. Michelle shows a police report that was filed against Angus that he and Roger got into a fight and that Angus beat his truck with a baseball bat. At the house, Davey and Katie are watching the auction and Davey is bummed that no one is bidding a lot on the T-shirts and hats. He gets the idea that a ride-along is what everyone wants and that it will raise a lot of money for the school. He says that Gloria won't mind at all. Back at the station, Gloria and Michelle talk to Angus again and he says that the police report that Roger filed was bogus because he didn't do it. He says that Roger was in a fight with half the other trucks.

Buerge comes into Lt. Valdez's office and says that he needs to discuss something personal with him. He tells Valdez that his girlfriend took a pregnancy test and it came out positive. Buerge asks what it is like to be a father. Valdez says that it is the best thing in the world. Buerge thanks him and leaves. Meanwhile, Gloria and Michelle go up to the food trucks and start talking and snacking with the owners. Gloria talks to one owner, Tyler, and he tells that it is rough and they get the impression that the truck owners are nervous or scared of something. Gloria says that one truck is missing though, Hotlinks Heaven. Gloria goes up to Tyler and asks him about the food truck and he says that the owner Joey Hotlinks owns the truck and that he is trying to Unionize the truck owners and says that he gets 20% of the profits. Tyler says that Joey is a thug and that Roger and Joey fought a while ago. Gloria says that Joey offers protection to Unionize and says that they have to talk to him again. Back at the station, Gloria and Valdez laugh that Joey sounds like a mobster name. Gloria says that Joey's rap sheet is horrible from assault to arson. Davey calls and tells that he added a ride-along with her. She is not happy about it at all.

Valdez shows that a medallion was found inside the truck. Gloria and Michelle talk with Joey and he says that he is just trying to get a little percentage to protect the other union member's trucks. He says that he and Roger had a falling out because he came over one time and Roger hit him. Bridgett was sent over to him and told him that if he ever talked to Roger again, then Roger would kill him. He says that he has always avoided him and asks if he needs a lawyer. Gloria says that she wants to talk to Bridgett about Joey. Michelle says that the bid for the ride-along is at $150. Gloria bid $250 for the ride-along and says that no one is going to outbid her now. They go to a bar and find Bridgett there. They ask about Joey and Roger and she tells that they didn't get along at all. Gloria shows the medallion and she tells them that the medallion belonged to her father. She gives Bridgett her card if she thinks of anymore information.

Gloria gets home and brought back dinner from the food trucks. Davey tells that the bidding went to $400. She asks what kind of idiot would want that. Davey tells that Katie did and she is standing right behind her. Gloria tells that she was thinking it was someone else and that she will reimburse her. However, Katie says that it will be fun and didn't mind paying the money for the school. That night, Gloria calls Michelle and says that another food truck was set on fire. It was Tyler's truck. He was inside sleeping when the fire was set. He managed to get out, but was burned pretty bad. They get to the hospital and Michelle asks if Gloria is going to be alright seeing a burn victim. She says that she is fine. They talk to Tyler and he says that he only parked the truck to sleep. He says that Joey knew where he parked his truck. They talk to Joey and tell him that they have something and Joey says that Tyler told him that he has the angels on his side. Gloria realizes that the medallion didn't belong to Roger, but to Tyler. Meanwhile, Bridgett gets to the hospital with flowers.

Gloria tells that she feels that Bridgett and Tyler were together until Roger didn't want the couple to be together. She tells that they need to clarify if Tyler is alright in the hospital and if Bridgett is there. Back at the hospital, Tyler says that he did it for them and Bridgett is upset with him. She picks up a pillow and suffocates Tyler and kills him. Afterward, Gloria and Michelle get to the hospital and Bridgett says that Tyler and Roger were the only people she loved and now they are gone. She says that she doesn't love anyone now. Gloria arrests her. Later, Buerge comes into Lt. Valdez's office and tells that it was a false alarm. Valdez tells that he is lucky because he would have only gotten 3 hours of sleep a night and that it is constantly a struggle. He says that they are the greatest thing to happen, but be glad it didn't happen. That evening, Gloria asks if Davey is upset with her and Davey tells that he was doing things to be nice and to get Gloria socializing. The episode ends with Gloria giving her ride-along with Katie and the two stakeouts the streets and look at the people walking by. Gloria points out their secrets and Katie is impressed.

ago. Josh recognizes the witness and says that he doesn't know him. Eventually, Josh cracks and says that Candace refused him and so he killed her.

They start to interview the women and they all say, except for one, that they had sex with Matthew and gave him thousands of dollars. Van Stone comes up and gives information on the DMV records and says that it is a Porsche that is registered to a Rick Darby. Michelle says that Mellissa Darby is the only woman that said that she didn't have sex with Matthew.

Rick comes in and says that his daughter, Beth, drives the Porsche. They go to the house that he gives the address to and the woman that Gloria interviewed as Elizabeth Arnold. They take Beth to the station and she tells that she drove to Matthew's and saw a car in the driveway. She saw it and then left. However, Gloria points out that they know that she got out of the car. Beth says that she went to the store. Gloria and Michelle don't believe her. Gloria and Michelle talk to Mellissa and Gloria realizes that she was really having sex with Matthew because she has Lilies smell in her hair. She admits it and says that she left afterward to meet her husband for dinner. Gloria sees the car that Melissa drives and realizes that Beth lied to them about the car. Back at the station, they tell that they know that Beth knew that her Step-Mother Mellissa was there and that she was angry. She tells that she went in to confront him to only tell that he needs to leave her Step-Mother out of his bed and then she left.

Later, Valdez asks if she is close on the murder investigation and she tells that she is and says that she is going to talk to Matthew's brother. He comes in with his wife and she tells that there was no business and that none of the women knew that Matthew had a brother. His wife starts to laugh and he says that she needs to stop laughing at him. He admits that he killed Matthew because he laughed at him. His wife gives a frightened look at him. Gloria calls Davey and apologizes for wondering. Valdez overhears it and tells her to tail him. Later that night, Gloria goes to the bar where Davey is and sees that the secret is that Davey is a drummer in a band. She smiles and claps his new-found talent.
