Drunken Watermelon

Season 1

Episode Number: 1

Season Episode: 1

Originally aired: Thursday August 8, 2019
Writer: John Wirth
Director: Stephen Fung
Show Stars: Iko Uwais (Kai Jin), Byron Mann (Uncle Six), Li Jun Li (Jenny Wah), Celia Au (Ying Ying), Lewis Tan (Lu Xin Lee), Lawrence Kao (Tommy Wah), Tommy Flanagan (Alec McCullough), Katheryn Winnick (Christine Gavin)
Guest Stars: Tzi Ma (Mr. Young), JuJu Chan (Zan), Cranston Johnson (Frank Fletcher), Mark Dacascos (Monk), Ken Do (Thug 1), Peter Chan (Jimmy), Carlo Yu (Chen), Leo Chiang (Lau), Paul Lazenby (Bendix), Gigi Jackman (Nurse), Sarah Hayward (Waitress), Lily Ling (Vivian)
Summary: A botched restaurant order makes Kai a target of Triad members, who are unaware of his family connections — and his new status as the Wu Assassin.

The episode opens up in the present day with Kai Jin quickly defeating multiple henchmen with his martial arts before attending an injured Mr. Young. Two triad henchmen appear in the hallway, and throw a knife to kill Mr. young, but Kai catches the knife. Mr. Young asks who saved him, and Kai replies "I'm a chef."

The day before, Kai is working at a restaurant on behalf of Tommy's favor where he makes food with his coworker Jimmy. Lu Xin Lee notices Kai not leaving, and asks him if he still wants money for his food truck business, to which Kai replies he does not, as he doesn't like how Lu Xin get his money. Kai purposely messes up an order by adding peanuts to a customer, which angers his boss, Tommy (it is unclear if the customer did not like peanuts, or was allergic). A Triad member punches Jimmy in the nose, and puts a gun to Kai's forehead when Kai tries to interfere. Before a fight breaks out, Tommy tells everyone to calm down, and tells Kai to leave before things escalate.

Kai goes back to his apartment where he greets his apartment owner and Mr. Young. The next morning, Jenny, the owner of the restaurant Kai works, sees her brother Tommy lying on the ground bruised. Tommy tells her what happened, and says that he's alright. In another part of San Francisco, triad boss Uncle Six finds two rival gang members on his territory, and tells them the story of Uncle Pete, the first Chinese millionaire before killing both of them to send a message to fellow crime boss Alec McCullough.

In a police department, Frank Fletcher, a police chief, assigns inspector Christine Gavin (aka CG) to go undercover and try to stop a gang war between Uncle Six and Alec McCullough. Fletcher chooses CG due to her being fluent in Russian, having good persuasion skills and cars, and experience, which annoys fellow cop Bendix. Kai's first business as a food truck is successful, and Lu Xin visits him. Lu Xin warns Kai that the Triad are coming after what happened yesterday, and Kai refuses his help. While Kai is closing up, Kai is attacked by two Triad members who damage his food truck, but Kai defeats them. While driving away, he hits a woman in the road, and when he asks to see if she's okay, she says Hang up in Cantonese and Indonesian. The woman gives him an artifact, which glows and wraps Kai in yellow energy.

Kai is transported to a different place, where he sees 5 people in armor, and a water snake wraps around Kai. The woman arrives in white clothing and slashes the water snake away. The woman explains that long ago, 5 Chinese Warlords found 5 different pieces of Wu Xing, artifacts that contain the power of the elements: Fire, Wood, Water, Metal, and Earth. They were corrupted and plan to conquer China, but one thousand monks sacrificed themselves to empower an artifact that will seek a worthy host to defeat the evil Wulords (individuals who wield the Wu Xing). The woman tells Kai that he is worthy, and he is now the Wu Assassin. Kai refuses, saying he's just a chef, but the woman ignores him, and Kai wakes up in the hospital.

While washing his face, Kai wakes up and sees a different face in the mirror (Chen and Kun Zi). The woman explains that Kai now has the martial art knowledge of a thousand monks, and when he fights his appearance will change to that of a past monk. Kai meets up with Jenny, who received a call that Kai is in the hospital, and drives him home to see Mr. Young. CG meets up with Lu Xin and tries to persuade him to hire her, and when he refuses CG steals his car. Kai goes to a temple to pray, where Uncle Six and his bodyguard, Zan meets up with Kai and takes him to a place that Kai can stay in the future for free, in hopes of trying to reconcile with Kai, but he refuses.

Tommy tries to persuade Jenny to give him $1200 for heroin, but Jenny refuses. Tommy reveals that he knows Jenny took money from the Triad, and blackmails her that if she doesn't give him the money, he will tell their parents. Kai is walking back to his apartment, where he fights the henchmen, which ties back in the opening scene. Kai defeats the two henchmen who tried to kill Mr. Young, and they report back to Uncle Six that there was a bald man who defeated them. Uncle Six kills the two henchmen for trying to attack Kai and hurting innocents. CG takes Lu Xin's car to his garage, where he finds her, Jenny goes in an underground fight tournament, Tommy injects heroin, and while Mr. Young asks who saved him, Kai replies "I'm the Wu Assassin."

Misspent Youth

Season 1

Episode Number: 2

Season Episode: 2

Originally aired: Thursday August 08, 2019

Show Stars: Iko Uwais (Kai Jin), Byron Mann (Uncle Six), Li Jun Li (Jenny Wah), Celia Au (Ying Ying), Lewis Tan (Lu Xin Lee), Lawrence Kao (Tommy Wah), Tommy Flanagan (Alec McCullough), Katheryn Winnick (Christine Gavin)
Guest Stars: Tzi Ma (Mr. Young), JuJu Chan (Zan), Cranston Johnson (Frank Fletcher), Trevor Lim (Young Kai), Josephine Ting (Young Jenny), Peter Chao (Young Tommy), Sam Jin Coates (Young Lu Xin), Naomi King (Tattoo Artist), Tosca Leong (Mrs. Wah), Ricky Lee (Mr. Wah), Ucal Shillingford (Nurse), Patricia Cullen (Doctor), Raresh DiMofte (Babinov), Arpad Balogh (Serge), Julian Paul (Viktor), Simon Leung (Raymond Tang), Frank Brandies (Aryan Bob), Rema Kibayi (Duppy), Dustin MacDougall (Dealer), Carlo Yu (Chen), Leo Chiang (Lau), Michael Patrick Denis (Tony Gelardi)
Summary: As Kai begins his Wu Assassin training, more mundane concerns find him turning to Lu Xin for a favor. Jenny prepares for her exacting parents to visit.

15 years ago in Chinatown, Lu Xin Lee and Tommy persuade Kai Jin and Jenny to get matching tattoos when Uncle Six tells Kai to go with him. Uncle Six scolds Kai for getting a tattoo (as its easier for cops to identify them) when he receives a call from Raymond Tang, the previous Triad boss. Uncle Six takes Kai to a warehouse where they see a man with a bag over his head. Raymond Tang explains that man was seen trying to kill Uncle Six, and forces Kai to take the gun. Before Kai can shoot the man, Uncle Six kills the man for Kai, traumatizing him. Uncle Six promises to Kai that he will make sure Kai won't kill anyone.

In the present day, Kai is having a mental breakdown over what happened yesterday by chopping vegetables and screaming. After calming down, Kai receives a visit from Zan who takes him to Uncle Six. Uncle Six apologizes for what happened yesterday, telling Kai that he did not know about the attack. Uncle Six asks Kai who is the old man, but Kai replies that he does not know. Meanwhile, Jenny wakes up and receives a face time call from her parents who wants to visit her and Tommy to see the new remodeling of their restaurant. Christine is running across the park where she meets her boss Fletcher in disguise. Fletcher tells her that after the meeting, Lu Xin made sure that she didn't have any records of her being a police (the FBI successfully faked her records), and vouched for her to his boss Tommy G.

Jenny returns the loan to Uncle Six, much to his displeasure as he thought they were friends. Uncle Six plans to go to Jenny's restaurant, as well as threatening her never to disappoint him again. Kai Jin receives a call from Lu Xin about his food truck "Kung Foodie" in his garage, and while talking to Lu Xin about the cost of repairing, Kai is pulled back into the Path by a mysterious woman who calls herself Ying Ying. Ying Ying explains that she has the power to pull Kai from the real world to The Path, and time works differently (a day in the Path will be like an second in the real world). Ying Ying tells Kai that she chose him because of his pure heart, and in order to defeat the evil Wu Warlords he must develop resistance against the elements (holding his head under water, putting his hand over fire, and moving a huge boulder to a designated line).

Kai returns to the real world where Lu Xin promises him to get a new windshield at an old salvage yard in Oakland. He introduces Kai to Christine, and tells Christine to drive Kai to Oakland. While driving, Kai is silent, and Christine tries to make Kai more at ease by explaining her backstory. While at the dealership, Christine notices one of the customers who had a bad past, and when one of them calls her a "skanky ho." a fight breaks out with Kai joining. Before things could escalate, the man in charge with the deal shoots in the sky, and orders them to leave. Meanwhile, Serge, Victor, and Babinov want to buy 10 cars from Lu Xin, but wants it in 2 days. Lu Xin tells them he can't, as he needs at least 2 weeks, but Victor blackmails Lu Xin that if he doesn't agree, they will tell Uncle Six that Lu Xin is against him.

Uncle Six visits Mr. Young in the hospital, and he finds out the man who took out his henchmen is a bald chef who says he is the Wu Assassin. Jenny finds Tommy lying in a crackhouse with a bunch of needles around, and 3 men come looking for Tommy (he owed them money). Jenny quickly defeats the three of them and leaves with Tommy. Christine drives Kai home, and Kai is once again pulled back into the Path by Ying Ying. Kai completes his training, and grabs Ying Ying's throat telling her that he is not a killer but a chef. Ying Ying gives Kai a vision where he sees Jenny killed by the same henchmen that attacked him last time. In a rage, Kai kills both the henchmen, and its revealed that Ying Ying impersonated Jenny.

Ying Ying tells Kai that he is a killer, he just doesn't know it yet. Ying Ying opens a door, telling him the monks will tell him what to do. Kai meditates, and the Dao start to form figures around him. Kai gets prophetic visions, where he sees Lu Xin bleeding heavily near his food truck, he sees Jenny holding a red shiny object, he sees Tommy killing himself with a shotgun, he sees Uncle Six shooting out fire at him (realizing that Uncle Six is a Wu Warlord), and he sees Christine sacrificing herself to save him. Uncle Six tells his men to find the bald chef who caused him so much trouble.

Guest Stars: Tzi Ma (Mr. Young), JuJu Chan (Zan), Cranston Johnson (Frank Fletcher), Mark Dacascos (Monk), Jeff Fahey (Jack), Mala Sung (Rapping Triad Soldier), Roger Sheung (Red Pole), Raresh DiMofte (Babinov), Edmond Wong (Henry Wong), Naiah Cummins (Uni Cop), Meena Mann (Reporter), Peter Chan (Jimmy), Dimitry Tsoy (Yenling), Robert Zen Humpage (Military Cut), Colin Foo (Older Bald Chef), Jay Zhang (Eugene)
Summary: Kai attempts to warn CG about his prophetic dream, while Uncle Six ramps up his hunt through Chinatown for the Wu Assassin.

Scottish gang members Babinov, Serge, and Victor to kill Uncle Six's counterfeiting operation in a bar. Fletcher finds out and begins to worry for Christine. Kai finds out where Christine lives and tries to warn her, but Christine attacks him out of a misunderstanding that he is a stalker.

Kai Jin tries to tell Christine about his prophetic dreams, but she doesn't believe him. Kai tells her to not go to Nikki's Steakhouse, and escapes. Christine searches up Nikki's Steakhouse and Uncle Six's history, watching a video nearly 15 years ago that talked about Uncle Six's building burning down over a mysterious fire, and recognizes a witness. Tommy wakes up, and Jenny scolds him for not going to rehab, even though he has drug problems and leaves to go to Master Wah.

Kai Jin goes back to Master Wah (Jenny's restaurant) and asks Jenny to hire him due to his food truck being ruined. Jenny agrees, but as long as Kai can make Fire chicken (laziji). After making the food, Jenny confesses that she took a loan from Uncle Six, which upsets Kai, as he turned down Uncle Six's offer of a new restaurant. Fletcher meets up with Christine to tell her he wants to pull her out of the case as things are getting too dangerous, but Christine persuades Fletcher to give her another week.

A triad member goes to Uncle Six and asks him why are they trying to find "the bald chef" when the Scottish gang killed their members, to which Uncle Six burns the triad member and tells the members that the chef is a threat to the Triad and Chinatown, and promises to deal with the Scottish gang personally. Uncle Six orders the Triad members and Zan to round up the bald chefs in Chinatown and bring them to Nikki Steakhouse.

Kai meets with Mr. Young to see if he is alright, and goes to his apartment to see Uncle Six sitting in his chair. Uncle Six tries to reconcile with Kai by giving him a letter, but Kai refuses.

Uncle Six pointed out that Kai has not used a special knife called Mizuyaki Honyaki (a knife that is ten times expensive than Kai's knife), but he has not thrown it away, and gives it to Kai. Ying Ying pulls Kai to the Path, and tells him to kill Uncle Six, but Kai ignores her order, leaving her disappointed and tells Kai that there will be consequences.

Zan forcefully makes Tommy the getaway driver, and kidnaps Jimmy. Jenny finds out and the two fight, but Jenny loses to her. Kai finds out from Mr. Young that a coworker of Mr. Young was kidnapped by the Triad. Kai meets with Jenny and learns that Zan kidnapped Jimmy. Realizing that the Triad are looking for him, Kai willingly gets himself captured and is taken to Nikki's Steakhouse.

Christine persuades the witness from the 15 year old video to tell what happened. It is revealed that the witness saw a fire snake, and the fire moved too quickly. Realizing that Kai may be telling the truth, Christine calls Kai but hears his voice mail. Uncle Six meets with the captured bald chefs, and asks who was the one that attacked his men. Kai says it was him, however Uncle Six only sees Kai's disguise (Kun Zi's appearance thanks to Kai's Wu Assassin powers), and challenges him to a fight.

Guest Stars: JuJu Chan (Zan), Mark Dacascos (Monk), Trevor Lim (Young Kai), Josephine Ting (Young Jenny), Peter Chao (Young Tommy), Sam Jin Coates (Young Lu Xin), Simon Leung (Raymond Tang), Tosca Leong (Mrs. Wah), Rares DiMofte (Babinov), Ricky Lee (Mr. Wah), Arpad Balogh (Serge), Julian Paul (Viktor)
Summary: Fists and fire fly as Kai and Uncle Six face off. Jenny and Tommy show the revamped restaurant to their parents. Lu Xin tangles with McCullough's men.

Nearly 15 years ago, Kai, Lu Xin, Tommy and Jenny sneak past Triad guards to go to a building to get fireworks. While getting the fireworks, Tommy accidentally locks the door, trapping them in. Uncle Six kills the Triad guards and the rest of the Triad leaders (including Raymond Tong) using his Fire Wu powers. As a side effect, Lu Xin is burned due to the fire reaching their room, and before Kai passes out he sees Uncle Six.

Kai and Uncle Six fight evenly for a while, but Uncle Six gains the upper hand due to his experience in his Wu powers and overwhelming strength. Christine goes to the Nikki Steakhouse (due to her remembering Kai's prophetic dream) but has to fight some bodyguards, When she sees Uncle Six she points a gun at him, Uncle Six starts burning Kai's face, and Kai's face switches from Kun Zi to his own face. Christine shoots at the chandelier above Uncle Six, which separates the two and injures Uncle Six. Christine takes Kai to safety, while Uncle Six realizes that Kai is the Wu Assassin.

Jenny is angry at Tommy for following the Triad orders to kidnap Jimmy, and doesn't want Tommy to meet their parents. Zan is driving Uncle Six and wants to deal with Alec McCullough and the Wu Assassin herself, but Uncle Six promises to kill the Wu Assassin if he has no other choice. Christine heals Kai's injuries, and Kai tells her everything (his Wu Assassin powers), and in return Christine reveals that she is an undercover cop. She receives a call from Lu Xin, and tells Kai to stay at home.

Kai is pulled back into the Path by Ying Ying, where she opens a gate revealing the statues of the past Wu Assassins, and she was the first Wu Assassin chosen by the monks. Ying Ying also revealed that she successfully extracted all the Wu Xings, and merged it with her Monk Shard to create a tortoise shell. Before she can do anything with it, she was ambushed by the enemy and killed. As a result the Wu Xing and monk shards were flung to the four corners of the world.

Jenny's parents arrive at Master Wah, and her father is angered that the restaurant did not remodel the way he liked (he preferred the model to have a traditional model, rather than a modern remodel). Tommy arrives and defends his sister, telling their parents that Jenny has been working extremely hard, and the customers don't care about the remodeling, and insults his parents on how overbearing they are. Their parents leave disappointed, and Tommy comforts Jenny, saying he couldn't leave Jenny alone after how hard their parents are on.

Viktor, and his Scottish crew arrive at Lu Xin's garage for the deal, however they made unreasonable demands (Lu Xin did as they told him, but they wanted more cars). Kai looks at Christine's documents, and recognizes Alec McCullough as a previous Wu Assassin. Uncle Six meets with Alec McCullough to talk about business.

Codladh Sámh

Show Stars: Iko Uwais (Kai Jin), Byron Mann (Uncle Six), Li Jun Li (Jenny Wah), Celia Au (Ying Ying), Lewis Tan (Lu Xin Lee), Lawrence Kao (Tommy Wah), Tommy Flanagan (Alec McCullough), Katheryn Winnick (Christine Gavin)
Guest Stars: Tzi Ma (Mr. Young), JuJu Chan (Zan), Mark Dacascos (Monk), Robin McLeavy (Maggie McCullough), Raresh DiMofte (Babinov), Arpad Balogh (Serge), Julian Paul (Viktor), Harper Postma (Liam), Billy Wickman (Leo)
Summary: While Kai comes clean to his friends, Uncle Six realizes he and McCullough have more in common than their criminal activity in Chinatown.

Christine overhears some of the Scottish Gang members planning to kill Lu Xin Lee in Russian, and she texts him. Lu Xin and Christine quickly kill Babinov, Serge, and Victor and the rest of the Scottish Gang. Christine convinces Lu Xin to call Kai although Lu Xin is clearly shaken up.

Kai meets with Jenny and asks her if she has seen a man name Alec McCullough, to which she replies she hasn't. Christine tells Kai that his prophecy nearly came true, and wants him to meet with her at Lee's Garage. After Kai hangs up, he tells Jenny and Tommy to meet with him.

Uncle Six tells Alec McCullough to stay out of Chinatown, and when McCullough refuses Uncle Six starts to burn McCullough's papers. McCullough extends his hands, and his papers revert back to normal, revealing that he is also a Wu Warlord. Uncle Six asks who is he, and Alec McCullough, having some respect for Uncle Six, tells him his history.

Centuries ago, in the 1500s Alec McCullough was a Gaelic warrior who went by the name Alasdair and had a loving wife (Maggie) and son (Liam). One day while hunting, McCullough encounters Ying Ying who deems him worthy due to his swordsmanship even though he loses to her. McCullough refuses, but Ying Ying gives him the shard anyway. That night, McCullough receives a dream of his son and wife drowning, which makes him run away from the lake. McCullough reveals to Maggie that he has mystic powers, when suddenly Liam is taken away by a Water Wu Warlord.

Liam is knocked unconscious, and when Maggie runs to him a female Water Wu Warlord appears and knocks her down. McCullough fights the Wulord, but is losing due to the Wulord having more experience. Before the Wu Warlord could kill McCullough, Maggie distracts her, which enrages the Wu Warlord and drowns Maggie and Liam. McCullough stabs the Wu Warlord from the back, and slits her throat, killing the Warlord and grieves over Maggie and Liam's dead body.

After burying Liam and Maggie, McCullough is pull into The Path by Ying Ying who tells him he must kill The Wood Wu Warlord. McCullough tells Ying Ying to bring his family back, or kill him but Ying Ying tells him that no one has the power of resurrection, and tells him that death is part of a Wu Assassin destiny. After killing the Wood Warlord in a prolonged battle, McCullough goes to Maggie and Liam's grave and kills himself while holding the Wood Wu Xing. As a result the monk shard leaves his body, and the Wu Xing enters his body. McCullough attempts to use the Wu Xing to resurrect his dead family, but fails and yells in despair.

In the present day, Uncle Six asks does he become immortal, but McCullough assures that only the Wood Wu Warlord is immortal, as the Wood Wu Xing is the only artifact to have the power to heal. McCullough senses the Wu Assassin is in San Francisco and offers a deal: team up with McCullough and the other Wu Warlords to kill the Wu Assassin, and in return Uncle Six can control part of the world.

Meanwhile, Kai tells everyone about what happened: Uncle Six caused the fire 15 years ago when they were trying to get fireworks and caused Lu Xin's scars, as well as him being the Wu Assassin. Christine also reveals to the group that she is an undercover cop. Tommy initially does not believe Kai but after Kai changes his face to resemble Kun Zi, everyone freaks out except Christine. Christine backs up Kai, saying she believes him, and although Jenny tries to deny what happened, Tommy also backs Kai up.

Later, Tommy reveals to Jenny that he isn't actually mad at Uncle Six for framing him, but relieved that he is innocent. Lu Xin plans to kill Uncle Six after the truth, telling Kai that Uncle Six paid for Lu Xin's surgeries to cover up the incident. Kai explains that he can't willingly give Lu Xin the Wu Assassin powers, and warns him of McCullough and tells him to look after Jenny. Lu Xin tells Tommy to dispose the body by giving him the keys to a car and tells him to clean up the mess.

Kai drives Jenny home, where she tries to persuade Kai to not kill Uncle Six as he is Kai's father but Kai ignores her. While cleaning, Tommy sees a small bag of heroin, and Lu Xin and Christine bond over their painful past, as well as Lu Xin telling her that he's not a bad guy. Kai goes to Mr. Young to buy some food items at the grocery store. Mr. Young recognizes that Kai is trying to poison someone, and tries to persuade Kai to not go through with it, Kai replies that he has to. Mr. Young acknowledges this, but tells Kai to leave him alone. In an underground fight club, Jenny bribes the referee to call Zan out to fight her. Kai meets with Uncle Six and tries to give him poisoned food, but Uncle Six reveals that he knows Kai is the Wu Assassin, and offers a truce.

Guest Stars: JuJu Chan (Zan), Robin McLeavy (Maggie McCullough), Sara Canning (Alana), David Stuart (Meeting Leader), Harper Postma (Liam), Billy Wickman (Leo), Justin Turnbull (Ray)
Summary: A risky power play puts Uncle Six at Kai's mercy. An unburdened Tommy attempts to get his life together. Zan makes her Triad ambitions known.

Uncle Six tells Kai everything about McCullough, and he wants a truce, as he believes that Alec McCullough poses a threat to Kai and Uncle Six. Kai doesn't trust Uncle Six due to his crimes in the triad, and Uncle Six tells Kai that if there was any possible way that Uncle Six can make Kai trustful of him again, he would do anything like removing the Wu-Xing from himself.

Kai realizes that it is possible to remove a Wu-Xing or a monk shard from an individual and goes to The Path to meet with Ying Ying. Ying Ying reluctantly tells Kai that there is one way to remove a Wu-Xing, and its called Gu (a poison made from various animals. The animals must consume each other, and the last animal will secrete a poison containing the previous animals that will help remove the Wu-Xing). Ying Ying also tells Kai that the process must include individuals who were in contact with a Wu-Xing to make the Gu more stronger; the Gu and the Wu-Xing will fight for the soul of the host body, and if the Gu overcomes the Wu-Xing then the Wu-Xing will be expelled. Ying Ying warns Kai that if the process fails, the host, and the individuals who participate in the process will die. Kai stubbornly says he must try, and Ying Ying abandons Kai, saying he has taken a different path. Kai returns to the real world, where Kai tells Uncle Six that there's a possible way to remove the Wu-Xing, but it is dangerous. Uncle Six agrees to the process without hesitation.

Kai tells Lu Xin Lee to get a poisonous frog, scorpion, spider, and a snake for the process. Lu Xin plans to leave, but Kai tells Lu Xin that the Gu process must include the blood of all the individuals who had contact with the respective Wu-Xing. Lu Xin wants to kill Uncle Six by shooting him, but Kai disagrees. Lu Xin asks Tommy and Jenny if they agree to this plan, and both of them agree. Lu Xin relents, but tells Kai that if the process fails then Lu Xin will kill Uncle Six himself. The group cut their hands, and use their blood on the spider. Lu Xin and Kai set a frog and spider against each other, and the frog eats the spider.

While waiting for the frog and scorpion, Tommy asks Kai about his powers, but Kai sees through Tommy and asks what he is really asking. Tommy states he has been going to rehab

(where he threw the bag of heroin in the toilet) and meets a woman name Alana who is having domestic abuse with her boyfriend, Ray, who is a driver for an app called Bayride. Kai tells Tommy he can't help him, and Tommy goes to see what Jenny and Lu Xin are up to. Alec McCullough hallucinates his wife and son while talking about his plan to reunite with them. Lu Xin asks Jenny why could she not ask him for a loan, but asked Uncle Six instead. Lu Xin realizes that if Jenny failed to keep up with the payments for the Triad, then the Triad will take Jenny's restaurant away making her free from her parent's overbearing influence. Jenny admits this is true, and didn't want to pressure Lu Xin with the money.

Lu Xin apologizes to Tommy over what happened 15 years ago, and offers Tommy a job to work with him in Lee's Garage. The frog loses to the scorpion, and after a brief scuffle the snake eats the scorpion. Kai extracts the poison from the snake (which also contains the poison of the frog, spider, and scorpion) and texts Uncle Six to meet with him. While driving to Master Wah restaurant, Zan asks Uncle Six why is he doing this for Kai, and Uncle Six insults Zan by saying that she won't know as she doesn't have a family, and even if Uncle Six dies she will never be the leader of the Triad.

Uncle Six meets with the group, and swallows the Gu. Veins start to appear up his neck, and Uncle Six is unconscious. Lu Xin does not let go of his grudge against Uncle Six and wants to kill him, but Kai tells him not to. Zan looks at a photo of Jenny's parents and tells Jenny her history: Zan joined the Triad in China when she was 13, was locked in prison, and fled to San Francisco when she was 20 yers old. Uncle Six found her and gave her purpose, and she will die for Uncle Six. Jenny points out that Zan will die for Uncle Six, but will Uncle Six sacrifice himself for Zan, troubling her. Jenny remembers a few days ago when Zan defeats Jenny in the underground match in Cocladh Samh.

Tommy is looking over Uncle Six when Uncle Six starts spasming and tells Tommy to free him. When Tommy refuses, Uncle Six burns Tommy's hand telling him that he's worthless and if Uncle Six is freed then Tommy can obtain the Wu-Xing. Before Tommy can do anything, everyone arrives and pushes Tommy out. Black blood forms out of Uncle Six's eyes, nose and mouth. Kai tells Uncle Six to let go, and Kai extracts the Fire Wu-Xing out of Uncle Six. Kai takes Uncle Six with him to find the Earth Wu Warlord, and Jenny gives Kai Tommy's gun just in case. Tommy orders Ray on Bayride, and nearly kills Ray but Ray stops early causing Tommy to fire at the ground himself. Tommy runs away before Ray gets suspicious, and Kai gives Christine the Fire Wu-Xing to keep it safe. The next morning, Zan goes to Alec McCullough and tells him that Kai Jin is the Wu Assassin and he extracted the Fire Wu-Xing from Uncle Six. Alec McCullough why is she betraying Uncle Six, and Zan replies "Power."

Legacy

Season 1

Show Stars: Iko Uwais (Kai Jin), Byron Mann (Uncle Six), Li Jun Li (Jenny Wah), Celia Au (Ying Ying), Lewis Tan (Lu Xin Lee), Lawrence Kao (Tommy Wah), Tommy Flanagan (Alec McCullough), Katheryn Winnick (Christine Gavin)
Guest Stars: Kevin Durand (James Baxter), Markjan Winnick (Buddy), Sean Campbell (Carl), Gail Matthius (Waitress), Lillian Doucet-Roche (Jill), Jesse Irving (Danny), Douglas Elphick (Old Timer)
Summary: Trouble follows when Kai and Uncle Six hit the road to hunt down the Earth Wu, who happens to be conducting a search of his own.

A woman name Jill wakes up in a cave to see an old man name James Baxter watching her (it is implied he kidnapped her). When Jill's boyfriend Danny knocks on James Baxter's door (having followed Jill's footprints), James Baxter repeatedly tells Danny that Jill is not here. Danny noted that James Baxter somehow knows who Jill is, even though Danny never told James her name. James Baxter smiles and lets Danny in.

Kai is researching the whereabouts of the Earth Wu Warlord in his apartment, and finds articles of hikers disappearing near Hurricane Ridge Trail in Oregon.

Uncle Six wakes up, and tells Kai that James Baxter is the name of the Earth Wu Warlord (McCullough gave Uncle Six the name in Codladh Sanh) and goes out to find him. While driving Uncle Six (shivering due to the loss of the Fire Wu Xing) notes that Kai must have a plan to kill James Baxter, as Uncle Six had defeated Kai. Kai counters that he wasn't trying to kill Uncle Six at the time.

While on the road trip Uncle Six feels nauseous after ingesting the Gu. Uncle Six asks to drive Kai, but Kai refuses, still not trusting him. Uncle Six tells Kai that he made the hard choices so that Kai wouldn't do it, and tries explaining that the Wu-Xing corrupted him but Kai points out that the Wu-Xing didn't corrupt Uncle Six, rather Uncle Six used the Wu Xing to commit crimes. Uncle Six remembers in that 15 years ago after killing the rival gng member in front of Kai (in Misspent Youth) while digging he discovered the Fire Wu Xing buried in the ground. Corrupted, he used the Fire Wu Xing to kill the Triad leaders and Raymond Tang by using a fire snake. Uncle Six tells Kai to stop and vomits on the side of the road, unaware that Lu Xin Lee is following them.

James enters the cave where jill is kept hostage (he uses his Earth Wu Xing powers to threaten her) and resumes asking her cryptic questions. Kai drops Uncle Six at a store where he can get clean clothes, and they both order food at a diner. A waitress makes racist remarks to Kai and Uncle six, with which Uncle Six retaliates that Asians have as much rights as Americans have in this country, and should not be disrespected. The waitress calls a bunch of customers to gang up on Kai and Uncle Six after their remarks, but Kai defeats multiple henchmen while Uncle Six barely beats one. The duo leave the diner, with Lu Xin following them. Jill asks James why is he keeping her here, and James explains that he is testing her to see if she's worthy of saving the Earth, but declares her unworthy.

James tells Jill that she can leave as long as she can outrun him, but while running James use his powers to turn her to stone. She shatters to the ground right next to the destroyed statue of Danny and countless victims. Kai and Uncle Six choose a place where James can't find him, and while resting near a campfire Kai asks Uncle Six why did he save him when he was young. Uncle Six tells Kai that when he was young, he was sold to the Triads (because his father could not pay his gambling debt) and sent to San Francisco. Years later Uncle Six found Kai in a container shipped to San Francisco where he hears Kai saying "Yat Dien" (Indonesian for No father) near his father body. After burying Kai's father, a few weeks later Uncle Six found Kai sleeping on his father's grave. Uncle Six took Kai to the neighborhood center, but keeps on getting calls saying Kai keeps on running away. Uncle Six tells Kai he took him in due to their similar paths, and him empathizing what Kai is going through. Uncle Six says "ayah sayang kamu" (Indonesian for "father loves you"). Overwhelmed with emotion, Kai tells Uncle Six they should get some sleep.

The next day Kai goes off without Uncle Six, while he is gone Lu Xin finds Uncle Six and holds him at gunpoint. Uncle Six accepts his fate, and tells Lu Xin he is sorry for scarring him. Right before Kai opens the door, a gun shot is heard. James Baxter opens the door and sees Kai, and closes it immediately. Kai goes through the house where he enters a cave. A bunch of boulders fall on top of Kai, and he shrugs them off with ease. Kai unsheathes his Mizuyaki Honyaki (the sword Uncle Six gave him in Fire Chicken) and confronts James Baxter. After a brief battle, James starts turning Kai to stone. Kai drops his sword in his opposite hand, and slashes James' throat, and chest. Before dying, James tell Kai to not let McCullough get the Wu Xing. Kai heads outside in the wood where he sees Lu Xin glaring at Uncle Six.

Guest Stars: Tzi Ma (Mr. Young), JuJu Chan (Zan), Cranston Johnson (Frank Fletcher), Caitlin Stryker (Pam Fletcher), Rhona Rees (Inspector Alice Riley), Zak Santiago (Sgt. Joe Torres), Jesse Hutch (Inspector Boyd), Danny Wattley (Officer Johnson), Noel Johansen (Officer Carlson), Richard Keats (Lawyer), Khamisa Wilsher (Natalie / Metal Wu), Amanda Friesen (Barista)
Summary: CG, Jenny and Tommy get caught in the crossfire when McCullough unleashes his big guns in a no-holds-barred fight to acquire the Fire Wu fragment.

Christine meets up with Kai who gives her the Wu Xing (this takes place in Gu Assassins) with Uncle Six passed out in Kai's car. Christine plans to meet her boss Fletcher, but wants a quiet place to talk to so she fakes stealing tires in front of Officer Johnson and Officer Carlson.

Gideon, the Metal Wu Warlord who uses Natalie as a vessel, meets with McCullough who orders him to go deep undercover to find the Fire Wu Xing (Zan told him previously after allying with him). Gideon takes control of an inspector name Riley, where he uses his Metal Wu powers to find out Christine's identity.

Gideon is forced to go with Riley's teammate Inspector Boyd in order to arrest Tommy in a supermarket due to the recent events in where the Triad henchmen were shot by the Scottish gang (in Fire Chicken) and a gun found in Ray's car (in Gu Assassin) was the same gun used to kill the Triad. Frank Fletcher meets up with his wife Pam who tells him that she's taking his kids somewhere else until he solves the case, as she notes that he is stressed and doesn't come home.

Jenny meets with Mr. Young who asks if she is okay, when she receives a call that Tommy is in the police station. Tommy tries explaining that he would never kill Uncle Six's men, as that is a death wish and tries explaining about the Wu Warlords, but Inspector Boyd and Fletcher don't believe them. Officer Johnson and Carlson meet up with Inspector Boyd and Fletcher, who tells them that Christine is in a room waiting for Fletcher. Jenny arrives at the police station at the same time Zan arrives. Gideon, possessing Riley, causes a black out in the police station, which gives Zan an opening to kill Inspector Boyd.

During the chaos, the Triad arrive and shoot down most of the precinct. Gideon finds Christine, and while walking Christine meets a dying cop who keeps looking at Riley in fear, and Christine incapacitates Riley. Jenny crawls away to a room to call, but there is no signal. Tommy escapes the interrogation room and meets Alec McCullough, who calls him by his name (even though they never met). Christine fights against Zan, and just when Christine is about to lose Jenny arrives and both of them manage to wound and defeat Zan. Fletcher encounters Riley, where he is soon possessed by Gideon.

Christine and Jenny go to the room where Christine gets the Fire Wu Xing from her bag. Jenny hears Tommy, and they go meet Zan and McCullough who is holding Tommy hostage. McCullough tells Jenny to give the Fire Wu Xing to Zan, but Jenny takes the Fire Wu Xing for herself, becoming the new Fire Wu Warlord. McCullough is impressed by Jenny's quick decision, but Fletcher reveals himself to be possessed by Gideon. Jenny shoots a fire blast at Fletcher, who deflects it. McCullough stabs Tommy with a wooden stake, threatening Jenny if she has an outburst one more time he will kill Tommy. McCullough heals Zan, orders Gideon to take control of Christine (due to his belief that Christine is valuable to the Wu Assassin), and asks Jenny what will she do.

Guest Stars: JuJu Chan (Zan), Summer Glau (Water Wu / Miss Jones), Mark Dacascos (Kun Zi), Travis Caldwell (Gideon), Serge Houde (The Duke)
Summary: Kai searches for a way to stop McCullough without sacrificing any of his friends. Uncle Six and Zan clash over control of the Triad.

In Croatia at 3:13 AM, a woman name Miss Jones is playing poker against the Duke for an artifact that acts as a guidepost to the afterlife. The Duke wins, but Miss Jones uses her Water Wu abilities to fill The Duke's throat with water, drowning him. She steals the artifact, and promptly leaves.

In San Francisco Zan orders a meeting with Uncle Six for a renegotiation: Kai must give McCullough the Earth Wu Xing, and in exchange Jenny, Christine, and Tommy will be freed. Uncle Six agrees but warns Zan that the Triad are only loyal to her because she is a servant of Alec McCullough. Before leaving, Zan tells Uncle Six that if she sees him again she will kill him. Lu Xin wants to save their friends, and tells Kai to do what McCullough wants. McCullough calls Kai and after hearing Kai slaying James Baxter (The Earth Wu Warlord), McCullough wants Kai to bring the wu xing to him. Kai replies no, and hangs up on McCullough, and is transported to The Path to meet Kun Zi.

Kai recognizes Kun Zi as the face he wears when he fights people. Kai asks where Ying Ying is, and Kun Zi explains that Ying Ying is in Kai's past, he must face the future. Kun Zi starts telling Kai that McCullough plans to rule the world but Kai responds that McCullough actually wants to reunite with his family, and asks if this is possible. Kun Zi replies it is possible, but only the Wu Assassin can occupy The Path freely, as any foreigner (Wu Warlord, or any human) enters the Path, it would disrupt the flow of the Dao which will damage time, space, and reality. Kai is pulled back to the real world, where Lu Xin calls him out on his response. Kai tells Lu Xin that the only important thing is to kill McCullough, and asks Uncle Six if he can rally his Triad men once more. While driving to where McCullough could be, Lu Xin tells Kai that although he is not the Wu Assassin, he will call Kai on his mistakes, and Kai thanks Lu Xin for sparing Uncle Six.

McCullough meets with Jenny and tries to break her spirit by replaying the conversation Kai had with McCullough earlier, and tells her that Kai does not care for her. Miss Jones meets with McCullough to give him the artifact, and asks him where Gideon is. Tommy wakes up to see Gideon (in Christine's body) toying with him by putting a metal needle near his eye. In Christine's subconscious, she overpowers Gideon temporarily and tells Kai that its actually her and gives him her location: an abandoned timber mill in West Oakland. Miss Jones finds Christine and kisses her (thinking its her boyfriend Gideon inhabiting Christine's body) Uncle Six finds his Triad members under control of Zan, and gets ready to fight Zan but Zan shoots him in the leg, crippling him.

Kai and Lu Xin Lee find the abandoned mill, and kills many henchmen using their martial arts. Before being overwhelmed, Jenny kills the rest with her Fire Wu Xing powers (one of the henchmen tried to move her) and meets up with Kai and Lu Xin. Kai is horrified that Jenny has the Fire Wu Xing, but Jenny tells Kai its the only way, and the reason why McCullough is not here is because he moved someplace else and she gives Kai an address: if Kai doesn't come to the address with the Earth Wu Xing, he will kill Tommy. Kai and Lu Xin go home and notice Uncle Six is not there. Kai gets a call from Zan, who video records herself shooting Uncle Six in the head, horrifying Kai and Lu Xin.

The next morning, McCullough puts the artifact in another stone that has similar markings, completing the puzzle (which causes the stone to glow red). Gideon overpowers Christine in her body, and Jenny sees Tommy bleeding out, and comforts him.

Guest Stars: Tzi Ma (Mr. Young), JuJu Chan (Zan), Summer Glau (Water Wu / Miss Jones), Robin McLeavy (Maggie McCullough), Travis Caldwell (Gideon), Peter Chan (Jimmy), Anthony Shim (Roland Ong), Harper Postma (Liam), Trevor Lim (Young Kai), Josephine Ting (Young Jenny), Peter Chao (Young Tommy), Sam Jin Coates (Young Lu Xin)
Summary: Kai tries to stop McCullough from achieving his endgame as the five Wu pieces - fire, wood, earth, metal and water — inch ever closer to reuniting.

After seeing Zan kill Uncle Six, Lu Xin leaves to let Kai grieve. Kai trashes his room and sees a letter Uncle Six gave to him (in Fire Chicken), and tears up reading it.

The next day, Kai and Lu Xin meet up with Alec McCullough, but McCullough tells them to drop their weapons. Kai and Lu Xin confront McCullough, who mocks Kai on Uncle Six's death as well as Ying Ying's words, telling him that Ying Ying only brings suffering and death. McCullough heals Tommy, and tells Kai that every move Kai can think of, McCullough already has a counter for that, telling Kai that there are 4 Wu Warlords (Christine (with Gideon impersonating her), himself, Miss Jones, and Jenny) and his henchmen against Kai, also revealing that he knew Kai met with Jenny to devise a plan.

Kai nearly hands the Earth Wu Xing to McCullough, before letting Tommy have it. McCullough smiles, telling him that was exactly what he needs, as the only way to travel to The Path is to have 5 humans that possess the Wu Xing, the Wu Assassin, and an artifact that acts as a guidepost to the afterlife (seen in Paths: Part 1). The whole group is transported to The Path where Kai wakes up and catches McCullough's Wu Xing. He then gathers Jenny, Miss Jones, Tommy, and Gideon's Wu Xing (freeing Christine) and extracts his own monk shard to form a tortoise shell. The tortoise shell opens a portal to the real world, but McCullough wakes up. Kai wants to take them all down and tells the rest of the group to leave, but Lu Xin disagrees.

McCullough enters through the gate and sees a blue flow of energy in front of him, and enters it. Kai quickly kills 3 henchmen, Lu Xin takes down 2 henchmen, Jenny fights Miss Jones evenly, and Christine kills Gideon. Kai quickly enters the blue flow of energy, while Lu Xin guides the rest of the group to the real world, leaving Miss Jones grieving over Gideon. McCullough sees his family again, and they are surprised by his new accent and clothes. When Caleb touches McCullough's chest, McCullough realizes that he lost his Wu Xing (making him easier to kill) and he did not close the portal. After a brief stand off, McCullough convinces his wife and son it is really him.

At night, McCullough hears rustling, and Kai ambushes him, killing him without mercy for what he did to Uncle Six (making Zan betray him). Maggie tries to fight Kai, but Kai overpowers her and nearly kills her in front of Caleb, but shows mercy and leaves to the normal world.

Six months later — Kai is thinking about his ordeal when Tommy wakes him up from his thoughts to give the food to the customer. It is shown that Jenny stepped down from being head of the restaurant and now Tommy is the new head of Master Wah. Tommy gives her an item that signifies Tommy being 30 days sober, Lu Xin gives Kai information that Zan is shown in Macau recruiting some Triad members. Mr. Young comes over and sees the group celebrating, and fondly looks on.

Lu Xin leaves early where he meets Christine. Christine warns Lu Xin that there is a power vacuum ever since Uncle Six died, and he should be careful. Christine also tells Lu Xin that she plans to get out of San Francisco ever since what happened in the past. She kisses him, then steals his keys and car. Jenny and Kai talk, with Jenny asking Kai if he killed McCullough because it was the right thing to do, or was it for revenge in Uncle Six's death. Kai does not want to answer that question, and Jenny goes to check up on Tommy. While pouring drinks she sees a man name Roland Ong (a childhood friend). Roland asks Jenny if she would like to participate in a public service event in order to make Chinatown a better place. Kai is looking at a photo of Zan when he hears rumbling and shaking and sees Ying Ying with modern clothing. Ying Ying confirms that it is her "in the flesh" and as the building begins to shake she says "its not over yet Kai. The world still needs the Wu Assassin."
